ABOUT THE OPPORTUNITY

IPC seeks a Staff or Senior Accountant (depending on experience) to join its growing Accounting & Administration team. A qualified candidate will perform various general accounting functions and activities for IPC and its affiliated entities.

Responsibilities include:

- Preparing monthly journal entries and financial statements for IPC and its affiliated entities
- Reviewing and reconcile general ledger accounts
- Processing accounts payable transactions through the payment cycle
- Preparing invoices and accounts receivable transactions
- Preparing monthly bank account reconciliations
- Assisting the Chief Financial Officer in the year-end close of the accounting records and the year-end financial audits
- Assisting the Chief Financial Officer with special projects as necessary
- Maintaining financial security by following internal controls

This is a unique opportunity to play a key role in a growing, mission-oriented organization, and as such successful candidates will be expected to apply an “all hands” approach.

QUALIFICATIONS

Education & Experience:

A Bachelor’s or Master’s degree in Accounting or related field with an emphasis in Accounting is required. The qualified candidate will have a minimum of 2 years of accounting experience with a public accounting firm, private company, or combination of both.

Skills:

IPC seeks candidates that exhibit both mission alignment and professional competency in the following areas:

- Ability to analyze accounting procedures and recommend improvements if necessary
- Proficiency in the Microsoft Office Suite, particularly Microsoft Excel
- Experience with Sage Intacct desired, but not required
- Experience with general ledger closes and financial statement preparation
- Experience with investment accounting and/or consolidations desired, but not required
- Ability to communicate effectively, tactfully, and courteously through oral and written communications
- Strong organizational skills and demonstrated ability to prioritize competing demands and perform multiple tasks with respect to internal and external deadlines
- Strong knowledge of accounting theory and GAAP
- Ability to work independently and take ownership of their own tasks and anticipate the needs of the department

Above all, an ideal candidate will be eager to learn and grow in a collaborative fast-paced team environment.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Reports directly to the Chief Financial Officer
- The position will be a combination of remote and on-site work in our Hartford, CT office.
- Competitive compensation package commensurate with experience
- A commitment to work-life balance with flexible, generous time-off policies (13 paid holidays, three weeks of vacation time - increasing with years of service, other personal time off, including for voting and community service).
- Generous benefits package including health insurance covering medical, dental and vision, 401K with a 6% employer match, tuition reimbursement for continuing education, and paid parental leave.
